

NEWBORN MINISTRY IN INDIA - FEBRUARY 2013 INDIA SHALL BE SAVED!

The devil tried his best to keep us from coming to India but God made a way where it seemed there wasn't going to be a way.

On Saturday 9 February, 2013 we arrived in Hyderabad and received a warm welcome from our host and his wife and were taken to our hotel, where we were able to rest after a long and tiring trip.

On Sunday morning, I was blessed to bring a message at our host's church and spend a little time afterwards praying for his congregation.

On Monday, we travelled in a convoy of cars to our crusade town: Gidaluru.

Here we were welcomed by the leaders of the different church denominations in this town (all united behind the crusade).

We started with our power conference the next morning and from day one it was clear that God was going to move in a powerful way. On day three we concluded the power conference with an impartation session and there was a tangible presence of God, the Holy Spirit in the place. The Holy Spirit moved powerfully and filled the people with His power.

On this mission we have been blessed with the presence of three fellow South Africans, experiencing for the first time what God is doing through the Newborn Ministry crusades.

Alice Pitzer and her daughter Alice-Michelle didn't wait but immediately used the opportunity to lay hands on people and to pray for the sick.

We are also blessed with the presence of Nick Kok who volunteered to do the camera work during the crusade and pastors/leaders conferences.

The crusade is being well attended and the attendance is growing each night. The presence is awesome and most of the people are acting on the alter call each night. God is healing the sick, delivering people from demonic possession and most importantly – people are getting saved!

Various political leaders also attended the crusade and on the first two nights of the crusade we were blessed with the testimony of the actor who played the role of Jesus in the Hindi version of the “Jesus Film”.

Tonight will be our last crusade night here in Gidaluru and we are expecting an even bigger crowd to turn up.

I believe that God is busy doing more than we can pray or think! We have already had awesome testimonies from people of the Hindu and Muslim faith that have accepted Jesus as their Lord and Saviour!

I asked Nick, Alice and Alice-Michelle about their opinion on what they have experienced so far.

Nick replied “I now realise how great the need is for God’s Word to be preached”.

Alice replied, “Its huge!”

Alice-Michelle replied: “I am in awe of God’s unconditional love for even unbelievers.”

Tomorrow morning we will leave this town behind us and the churches will start with the follow-up of the thousands of decision cards completed at the crusade.

Once we leave here, we will travel back to Hyderabad where we will take a flight to Chennai for the 2nd part of our outreach to India.

Please visit our website at www.newbornministry.com for live footage of this amazing crusade. You can also go to youtube and type in “Newborn Ministry India 2013” to see the video clips of each day.

Please keep praying for us.

Blessings from India.
